

DISNEY PRINCESS SING-A-LONG AND STORYTIME FOR YOUNG DREAMERS

Instructor: Monica Ricketts

4 weeks, 1 class per week, 45 minutes each

Dates Wednesday, July 1,8,15,22, 10:00-10:45 a.m.

Ages 3-7

$15 per session or $50 for 4-week series

Objective: Using imaginations and creativity through storytelling and singing.

Learner Outcome: Class includes singing and interactive movements and, most importantly, HAVING FUN!

Materials Needed:

1. Laptop, computer, or other device that can run a Zoom meeting with sound.
2. Parent or adult needs to attend with child to run Zoom meeting and for Q&A.segment
3. Dressing up in their favorite Princess costume or crown is encouraged!

In this 45-minute session, professional musical theater actor/singer Monica Ricketts will transform into a beloved princess character and tell an enchanting interactive story! The class will include an elaborate story-time, a magical sing-along with some of your child's favorite songs, and a Q & A segment where you can ask something that you have always wanted to know about each princess.

Session 1 – July 1: Elsa “Frozen” Story and Song

Session 2 – July 8: Ariel “The Little Mermaid” Story and Song

Session 3 - July 15: Snow White “Snow White and the 7 Dwarfs” Story and Song

Session 4 – July 22: Cinderella “Cinderella” Story and Song

Monica Ricketts is a Los Angeles-based actor/singer, who has performed all over the globe, including Universal Studios Japan. Disney Cruise Line and the production of “Into the Woods” at The Hollywood Bowl. Monica has worked professionally for Disney Cruise Line and has been performing as a princess for private events for 7 years now. She loves to share her love of fairytales and remind children that dreams can come true! You can find more information about her on instagram: @monicadanae or website: www.monicaricketts.com

