

VOICEOVER TECHNIQUE FOR ACTORS

Instructor: A.J. Danna

Dates: Sunday, July 12th and 19th, 6:00-7:00 p.m.

Age Group: 10+ (Adults are welcome!)

Length: Two One-Hour long sessions

Tuition: $15 for one session or $25 for both sessions

Objective: Students will learn basic voice acting techniques to develop character voices and learn about how to break into the voice over industry.

Learner Outcome:

1. Students will learn basic voice acting techniques.
2. Students will learn about the voice acting industry

Materials Needed:

1. Laptop, computer, or other device that can run a Zoom meeting with sound
2. Instructor will provide scripts.

In the first session, professional voice actor AJ Danna (SAG-AFTRA) will discuss techniques for refining your animation, commercial, and voice-match performances. AJ will also answer any questions you may have about developing a competitive voiceover skillset. The second session will break down various aspects of the voiceover business, and how to navigate the industry on your own. Topics will include demo reel production, voiceover classes, getting started with or without an agent, and finding your niche. AJ will also answer any questions you may have about the voiceover business.

AJ Danna is a Los Angeles-based voice actor, whose work can be heard in theme parks, television, radio, and film. For more information about AJ, please visit www.ajdanna.com/voiceover

